ANOTHER CRUISER

Sunk Near Port Arthur

KAMIMURA'S REPORT PUBLISHED

General Stoessel Sends His Family Out of Port Arthur

GENERAL ATTACK BEGUN.

Cheloo, August 15.—A telegram just received here from a reliable source states that a general attack on Port Arthur begun at four o'clock this morning.

RUSSIAN FLAGS PULLED DOWN.

Tsjoog Choo, August 15.—The Russian flag has been pulled down from the battleship Czarevitch and three destroyers which took refuge here. The lowering of the colors was done in the presence of the German Governor.

THE SMASHING OF THE RUSSIAN FLEET.

Tokio, August 15.—A dispatch to the Admiralty from the naval establishment at Takeshi, says Admiral Kamimura met the Vladivostok squadron twenty miles from Ulsan, Corea, at five o'clock Sunday morning. The battle ended at 1.30 a.m. The Rurik sank by the stern, her bows standing up perpendicularly. The Japanese rescued 450 of the members of the Rurik's crew. Only one of the Japanese ships was hit. Two Japs were killed and seven wounded.

RUSSIAN CRUISER TORPEDOED.

Tokio, August 15.—Admiral Togo reports that a vessel of the protected cruiser Pallada pattern was torpedoed and sunk in the engagement of August 10th. The Pallada, with her sister ships the Diana and Aurora, was built in 1889 on the Neva. It had three screws and was of 7630 tons displacement and had three engines of 3870 horse power each. The Pallada was armed with eight six-inch quick firing guns; 24 3-inch quick-firers and eight smaller ones. It had four torpedo tubes. Her speed was twenty knots.

PREPARING FOR THE END.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 15.—The expectation here is that Port Arthur will fall at any moment. Especial significance is attached to the fact that General Stoessel's wife and children went to Cheloo on board the torpedo boat destroyer Ryeshiteln.

DETAILS OF NAVAL ACTION.

Washington, August 15.—The Japanese legation today received a despatch from the foreign office at Tokio saying that Admiral Kamimura reports that at dawn on August 14th, his squadron discovered the three vessels of the Vladivostok squadron off Ulsan on the southern coast of Corea, steaming northward. The Russian vessels on sighting the Japanese squadron attempted to escape northward, but were prevented and fighting commenced at 2.30. All the enemy's ships caught fire several times by reason of the Japanese shells, and apparently suffered heavily, especially the Rurik. Eventually the Russians fled at full speed northward, leaving behind them the Rurik, which afterwards sank. Thereupon the Japanese squadron began to rescue the drowning Russians and picked up six hundred.

SURVIVORS REACH JAPAN.

Nagasaki, August 15.—Six hundred survivors of the crew of the Russian cruiser Rurik, which was sunk by Admiral Kamimura, off Ulsan, Corea, Sunday morning, have arrived at Sasebo. The Japanese hospital ship Sakio has also arrived at Sasebo with 75 Japanese wounded, including the Imperial Prince Hyroyasu Kwelokoz, who was slightly wounded in the naval engagement off Round Island.

The City of the North

Under the above heading a special correspondent of the Toronto Globe who has been making a tour of the West writes to his paper as follows:

For some years this town had agitated vainly for a railway and traffic bridge to cross the Saskatchewan river, to give Edmonton much-needed connection with the Calgary & Edmonton Railway, the terminus of which is at Strathcona, on the other side of the river. Finally the Dominion Government made an offer that if Edmonton would pay twenty-five thousand dollars towards the cost of construction the Government would supply the balance of the amount necessary. Within twenty-four hours after the offer the prominent business men of Edmonton had personally subscribed the required amount, and the money was telegraphed to Ottawa. Thus Edmonton secured the bridge, and the incident is told here merely as illustrating the promptness and enterprise that have always characterized the citizens of this place, and which under many disadvantages and disappointments have placed Edmonton in such a position that now nothing can prevent it being the largest city of the northern country, and a city, too, commanding what is destined to be one of the most populous and wealthiest territories in the west.

For Edmonton has indeed almost since its inception had to confront conditions that might well have discouraged the residents. The lack of direct railway communication was a serious handicap. While the Calgary & Edmonton which is now leased to the Canadian Pacific, ran into Strathcona, all goods from Edmonton had to be carted to the river, freighted across, and then hauled to the terminus of the line, a slow and expensive method of transportation. With the building of the bridge an arrangement was made whereby the Canadian Northern constructed a short line of about 3 miles from Edmonton to Strathcona, and this gave the former place direct railway connection with the outer world. Even then the freight and passenger arrangements were of an unsatisfactory character, and they have remained so to a considerable extent to this day. A solution of the transportation difficulty is now at hand, and, besides the Canadian Pacific, Edmonton will shortly have the advantage of the Canadian Northern, the main line of which is steadily approaching the town, and which, if it will not be in this winter as is hoped, will certainly reach Edmonton by the early spring.

But Edmonton and the country around, despite these drawbacks, have continued to grow. Edmonton to-day has a population of perhaps 7,000, while the territory around contains in the neighborhood of 20,000 people. It was in anticipation of the railway that the district around Edmonton was settled, and, while the settlers have waited long for that transportation facilities, the coming of the Canadian Northern will afford, particularly for the southern and easterly portion of the district, a direct route for the marketing of their produce.

In the past seven years the advance in settlement has been very marked, and the Government land is taken up for nearly 70 miles east. Just around Edmonton there are some extensive blocks of land held by former Hudson's Bay Company officials, who are holding it till they obtain what they consider a fair price. Till that price, whatever it may be, is reached, this land is closed to settlement. Edmonton now enjoys, and will continue to enjoy, the trade of the settlements easterly along the Saskatchewan river. The shipment of supplies into that district is done principally in scows, built specially for the purpose here and floated down stream. When they reach their destination these scows are broken up and the lumber sold for building purposes, as it is impossible to bring them back again against the current. By this method the contractors for McKenzie & Mann are said to have taken in this season over 1,500 tons of supplies. Some day the problem of transportation on the Saskatchewan will be solved by the establishment of a fleet of flat-bottomed river steamers, and it is indeed rather surprising that, with the business offering, such boats are not already plying in numbers on the river.

When the new English colony at Lloydminster becomes a factor in the production of western grain Edmonton may expect its share of that business, which at the present time, however, is not great, as these colonists do not seem to have yet become large producers. Each year, however, will no doubt show an improvement from that portion of the Barr colonists in this respect.

Edmonton is the neck of the bottle through which the immense fur trade of the northern country passes. Edmonton wholesale and retail merchants supply the hundreds of fur traders that hunt and trap in this great fur territory for a distance of over 1,500 north, and the bulk of the furs passes through here, where they are packed properly before being shipped to the English market. It might not be thought that the war between Russia and Japan could in any way affect the business interests of Edmonton, but it has in respect to the fur trade. The Russian demand for furs, it is said, fell off on account of the war, and as a result prices declined at the London fur sales. In the way profits that the fur traders here counted upon were missing this last season, a condition that, while unpleasant, cannot be considered permanent.

The extensive building operations and the rapid increase in the population of the city recently made the residents consider the question of an electric railway service. A company was formed, a charter secured from the Dominion Government, and under the present agreement work on the street railway will commence on September 1st, while two miles are to be completed within a year. Eventually there will be a belt line taking in a radius of ten miles and connecting such towns as St. Albert, Strathcona and Port Saskatchewan with Edmonton. With a splendid river running past it, cheap fuel—good coal is only $2 a ton,—plenty of coarse lumber for building and manufacturing purposes, and a well-settled country around, Edmonton has all the elements that go to make a large and prosperous city.

The Edmonton district itself extends from Poncha, where the Calgary & Edmonton Railway crosses the Battle river, seventy miles south of Edmonton, to the height of land between the Saskatchewan and Athabasca rivers, fifty miles north of Edmonton, and as far east and west as settlement has been established so long, and has advantages of such a degree, that the advantage of the country are now fully demonstrated. Nearly everything that can be grown in Ontario with the exception of fruits, can be grown here. Some of the wild fruits and the small cultivated fruits are grown without difficulty, and stock of all kinds, can readily and profitably be raised. Too much moisture is, perhaps, a drawback from which the country has suffered to some extent in the past, but with the more extended farming operations the land is becoming better drained, while the Government is at the present time dredging a system of trunk ditches to assist the farmers in their drainage operations.

A request was recently made to the Government for the establishment of an experimental farm in this district, but the Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, replied that at the present time it was impossible to grant the request. There is a gentleman in Edmonton, however, who, on a limited scale, is doing a valuable work in the way of experimenting with the various roots and grains, Dr. Stuart Wade. This with Mr. Wade is a labor of love but the results of his investigations are always at the disposal of any of the farmers of the district.

Booth and the G. T. P.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—John R. Booth, of the Canada Atlantic railway, was asked whether his election yesterday to the directorate of the Grand Trunk Pacific company meant that the C. A. R. was to pass into the hands of the Grand Trunk. He answered that the report about the Grand Trunk going after the Canada Atlantic system to Georgian Bay was mere newspaper talk and entirely void of foundation. He had accepted a position on the Grand Trunk Pacific board because he was interested in the development of Canada and because he thoroughly believed in the new transcontinental railway project.

Alien Labor

The amended Alien Labor law was the principal subject of discussion yesterday. The bill is introduced by Sir William Mulock, Post-Master General and Minister of Labor. It deals with the case of representations whereby persons are attracted to Canada by false promises of employment. It requires that railways aided by public money should be constructed by Canadian residents or bona fide immigrants. The third important provision is for the exclusion of undesirable emigrants, covering such cases as were under discussion when the immigration estimates were being considered. The bill is not looked upon with favor by the railway companies of the Manufacturers' Association, and a very strong lobby was put up against it by those interests. The bill was introduced at such a late date in the session that it was easily possible for opposing interests to hold it up and to block other business as well. Under the circumstances it became necessary for the Minister to make some concessions. It was rather peculiar that when the immigration estimates were up for consideration members of the Opposition who spoke were a unit in demanding such changes in the law as would exclude undesirable immigrants, but when the Alien Labor bill was up for consideration with provisions to meet the cases which were the subjects of their former objection they were the chief opponents of the provisions of the new bill. Mr. Borden, Leader of the Opposition, was not present during the discussion; it is understood that he has gone home and will not be back during the session. The bill was passed through its committee stages and stands for its third reading.

Adding to the I. C. R.

The bill providing for the purchase of the Canadian Eastern Railway of New Brunswick went through absolutely without opposition. Messrs. Fowler and Gourley, of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, respectively, urged the Government to take over all the private owned lines in those provinces and add them to the Intercolonial system.

The Peace River Investigation

The report of the Agricultural Committee on the Macoun investigation was concurred in yesterday by Parliament without discussion. This was the very quiet finish of long drawn out and lurid proceedings in the Agricultural Committee. The effort at first was to blacken the character of the Peace River country, as a blow at the transcontinental railway; then to discredit the western members who opposed this course; and finally to protect in his position as a Government employee, Mr. Macoun, who had made a misleading report and backed it up by misstatements to the Committee. The report of the Committee is in moderate but unmistakable language and at the last meeting of the Agricultural Committee it was bitterly opposed by Mr. Blain and other Opposition members as a condemnation of Mr. Macoun personally as well as of his report and evidence. It was a matter of the utmost importance to the western country that the report of Macoun should not go unchallenged. Either he must be discredited or the western country was discredited. The result is that the discredit is on him. Ottawa, August 6th, 1904.

FOREST FIRES

Nelson, Aug. 12.—Forest fires last evening burned down the pole line of the West Kootenay Power and Light company at Point Bowen, between Nelson and Bonnington Falls, cutting off part of the city's electric lighting and necessitating the banking of the furnaces at the Hall mines smelter and the stoppage of street cars. The Canadian Pacific bridge at Slokan was turned out.

BY LAWS DEFEATED

The Calgary city council submitted a number of by-laws to the rate-payers for their endorsement or rejection on Friday. The different propositions called for a total appropriation of $105,000.

The waterworks by-law which called for the raising of $39,000 to provide for the improvement of the whole system and the purchase of a new pump, was carried by a good majority.

A series of by-laws for wooden sidewalks were defeated by large majorities, but several by-laws for the construction of granolithic sidewalks were carried.

A by-law to provide the necessary funds for the installation of a crematorium was defeated.

A by-law to provide for the laying out of boulevards was defeated, as was also the by-law to provide for the Bow river embankment.

EDISON

Haying is now on in full force and promises to be an abundant yield as there is an unlimited amount of it to be had simply for the cutting.

We have now had a weekly mail service a little over a month. Messrs. Messrs. Maloney and Harrison have the post office in their store and Mr. James Knox is carrier. This makes it quite convenient, as we now secure our mail regularly once a week.

Mr. Branson has been sick for the last week with a violent attack of the kidneys, and was taken down to the hospital Sunday evening to the hospital. We hope soon to hear of his recovery.

There have been quite a number of hand seekers here in the last month; also there have been several C. P. R. quarter sections purchased in the vicinity of the terminus of the proposed C. N. R.

On Friday evening last the young people of the community were tendered a dance by Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Pearson. All certainly had a jolly time. This is only one of the ways in which this hospitable family have added to the pleasures of Edison.

Mr. Walker Wedgick leaves today for the Yukon, where he will probably spend the winter.

Mrs. Wm. Garrison is anticipating a visit from her sister whose home is in Illinois shortly.

It is reported that Mr. Tracy of Edmonton, will come up soon to reside on his homestead.

J. H. Harrison, of Maloney & Harrison, arrived here Sunday morning from Edmonton with a load of freight. He was accompanied by Mr. Robert Logan, who will be their guest for a few days.

We have service now every Sunday by Mr. D. C. McGregor, a student of Toronto University, but regret very much to say that he is only here for a short while, as he proposes to enter school again this fall.

G. T. P. Plans

Montreal, Que., Aug. 10.—The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway company was organized today at the first meeting of the shareholders and directors at the general offices of the Grand Trunk.

Mr. Hays, when seen after the meeting, said that surveys for the new road would be pushed vigorously through from now until their completion.

"Surveys," he added, "are now being rapidly made on that section of the road between Winnipeg and the Pacific coast. They will be continued, and as soon as all the required information regarding grades, practicable routes and terminal points is prepared, a definite route will be chosen and construction work will be commenced. It will take considerable time yet for the surveys to be completed. There is no probability of and construction work being started this year."

"What about the section from Winnipeg to Moncton?"

"Oh, well, the government will have to decide about that. As soon as the government is ready for us to go ahead, they will be in a position to start us."

"Have you any idea as to what route will be chosen through the Northwest?" was asked.

"We will wait until all the data needed is collected by the engineers. On this we will decide largely as to what route will be most desirable. Before that time I could not say where the road may go."

Mr. Hays could not state as to what place on the Pacific coast might be decided upon as a terminus. Engineers would also prepare reports on the possible points, and when these reports were submitted the company would visit them, and taking into consideration the views of the engineers, would reach a conclusion when necessary.

"Will you go west soon to visit points along the Pacific coast where it is likely the road may terminate?"

"I will probably go out either this week or next to look over the ground."

"Where will the head offices of the new company be?" Mr. Hays was next asked.

"They will be in the general offices of the Grand Trunk at Montreal," he replied.

Mr. Hays added that the road would be completed within the number of years specified by the government.

A Monied Beggar

Herald: Pat Griffith, a blind beggar, was in the Calgary police court yesterday. He was arrested at the instance of E. A. Labosse, who charged him with refusal to pay his wages amounting to $45. A curious case was developed.

Labosse testified that Griffith hired him in Quebec early in the spring to travel through the west with him on a begging tour. They would see the country in style and make money too. They have succeeded.

They had passed through to the coast and were on the way back. He was paid in salary at the rate of $45 regularly until this month. Then Griffith refused to settle. He said that they usually took in $25 a day. He also said that the blind man always sent his money home by draft every week. At the time of his arrest Griffith had in his pocket a draft on the Bank of Montreal for $366. The witness said this was the proceeds of a begging trip around Calgary. The court ordered the beggar to pay his debts and he did so and was released.

Armenians Attack Turks

London, August 13.—The Tabrice, Persia, correspondent of the Daily News in a dispatch dated August 6, says:

"On July 13th a band of Armenian revolutionists appeared near Outchikilissa. Turkish soldiers and Turks, finding this an excuse, attacked and destroyed the villages of Outchikilissa, Koomlouboujek, Gougan, Karabazar and Sayto, butchering men and outraging women.

"Two large Armenian bands marched to Sassun to help the insurgent leader Antranik attack the garrison at Mossunzerey and Goutache for revenge on July 25th. At dawn bombs were thrown into these places, wounding many, and severe fighting ensued. A majority of the soldiers were killed and the garrisons resembled graveyards. One band forced its way through the Kurdish tribes towards Arjes. The number of soldiers killed amounted to several hundred.

Forest Fires at Nelson

Nelson, August 15th.—Forest fires in the city continue to multiply. The latest started below the upper track of the Nelson & Port Sheppard line as it runs down hill to five-mile point, just behind Robert's ranch. It is supposed that a spark from a passing engine started the dry grass, and last morning the fire was spreading until it passed over the track and climbed on up the hill. Fearing that the long trestle bridge, which is at the spot might catch fire, the railway company dispatched a gang of sixteen men to protect the bridge and the fire was kept off the structure in its upward path.

By 6 o'clock Thursday night the fire had crept around the shoulder of the mountain above the track and was visible from the city making its way westerly.

By far the most serious fire news locally is the partial destruction of the city waterworks flame from White-water creek to the summit, which took place yesterday afternoon. The flame is from one and a half to two miles long and the fire has passed right over it, burning the top board covering wherever it was uncovered and probably destroying several of the trestles over which the flame runs at different points. The fire also destroyed the mill of the old Golden King mine owned by J. Fred Hume.

The fire had burned up from both sides of the creek and had reached the summits on either side last night. The flame is covered in parts by burning trees and debris and the fire who were sent to inspect were unable to do anything until the fire cooled down.

The fires which are causing so much annoyance to the people of Nelson and anxiety to those owning property outside of Nelson, are proved by late reports to be general throughout the district, and in the north, near Cambrone have already done much damage which will take time and money to repair.

It is known by telegraphic report that the fireways at the Golden King and Elm mines are destroyed. Since this is so there is little doubt that the cabins at the Elm are also gone, as if the fire has swept to the tramline, there is no effective means near check as further progress. Near there, so near as to be in serious danger, if it is not already attacked, is the Oyster-Criterion group of mines with a recently constructed tram line. Those familiar with the nature of the surroundings there say that a fire which has destroyed any one of these is most likely to involve all.

CASHEL AWARD

CLAIMANTS

Seem to Have Equal Rights to the Thousand Dollars. Money May Be Divided

Bulletin Special Dispatch.

Ottawa, August 16.—Col. White, comptroller of the N. W. M. P., says that the question of the reward to be paid for the capture of Cashel, the Tail Creek murderer, is still undecided.

There are three claimants and the comptroller does not know how to dispose of the thousand dollars voted, whether to divide it or pay it into the Exchequer Court and let the claimants fight it out. The question of the responsibility for the decision was referred to the justice department and the onus thrown on the comptroller. Probably it will be divided.

TORONTO STRIKE

EFFECTS

Thousands of Tradesmen, Builders' Labors Kick For High Pay and are Refused

Bulletin Special Dispatch. Toronto, Ont., Aug. 16.—One thousand builders' laborers went out on strike in Toronto yesterday.

All these are idle and their idleness affected the greater number of 8,000 tradesmen.

Bricklayers, masons, carpenters, plasterers, steamfitters and building tradesmen will be hampered in their work by lack of labor.

The men are now getting 25 cents an hour, they demanded 28 cents. The builders refusing this, the union ordered a strike.

Owing to Shortage of European Crops a large Demand is Expected for Canadian Products

Bulletin Special Dispatch. Montreal, August 16.—The Canadian commercial agent for Sweden has forwarded to the department of trade, reports of grain crop prospects from all the European centres, which he summarized thus: "There will be a heavy demand from all over Europe for grain and food stuffs, and if Canada grows a good crop this year, a good price ought to be obtained for the surplus product."

G. T. P. STEAMSHIP

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Allan Line will run a Line of Steamers to the Orient Before the Completion of the G. T. P.

Bulletin Special Dispatches. London, August 16th.—The Allan line will run steamers to the Orient before the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Another feature is rendered very interesting by the announcement that relations between the Grand Trunk and the Allan Steamship line have always been close and that it was in view of the establishment of a Pacific fleet that H. A. Allan was invited to go on the board of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

STORM AT THE FORT

The slight storm which passed over Edmonton yesterday afternoon between three and four o'clock, was felt with much greater strength at Fort Saskatchewan. The storm was accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning, one of which shattered the chimney on Daniels' house. The building itself was uninjured. A slight fall of hail accompanied the storm, but not sufficient to cause any damage.

It was reported about the city last night that the hail had wrought havoc among the standing crops, but enquiry at the fort this morning proved these reports to be without any foundation in fact. No hail fell to amount to anything and no damage was done to the crops.

U. S. May Fight

Washington, D.C., Aug. 13.—United States Secretary of State Hay occupied considerable time at the cabinet meeting in a presentation of the latest phases of the Turkish situation. He recounted the details of his interview with Chekib Bey, the Turkish minister, at which the secretary forcibly stated the attitude of the American government. He explained also the reasons which had actuated him in requesting that the American European squadron should be sent to Smyrna. It is not deemed wise by the secretary that the reasons for this action should be disclosed entirely at this time. Fresh negotiations with the Porte have been instituted and in the event of their failure, it may be that Minister Leishman will leave his post and go aboard the American flagship, thus creating a situation of some seriousness.

C. N. R. GRADING

OPERATIONS

Crops at Lloydminster and in the Edmonton District are Splendid

Messrs. C. W. Mathers and A. B. Cushing returned Saturday night from a trip to Battleford and the British colony. They left Edmonton some two weeks ago with D. McIntosh who took two scows of provisions and supplies with him. The party had a splendid trip to Fort Pitt, the landing place for the British colony. From Fort Pitt the party drove overland to Battleford. Part of the country traversed was splendid farming land, and a part of it was somewhat on the light side.

When about thirty miles west of Battleford the party first crossed the new Canadian Northern Railway grade. Grading operations are in full swing, and the work of construction is proceeding with all possible speed. From this point to Lloydminster different gangs of men are at work on small contracts. When these are all completed the grade will extend for a long distance west of Battleford. The construction foreman under the chief contractor, J. D. McArthur, informed Mr. Mathers that the grade would be completed well on to Edmonton this fall. Battleford naturally feels that she has been given the go-by by the Canadian Northern Railway. The railway runs along the river bank opposite Battleford and crosses the river about eight miles above the town. It is said to be practically impossible to construct a cable ferry on the river at Battleford on account of the numerous and shifting sand bars in the river at this point. Were it possible to operate a ferry at Battleford some advantage might be gained from the presence of the railway just across the river, but under the present conditions the railway might be miles to the north for all the benefit it will be to Battleford.

From Battleford the party drove to Lloydminster, the capital of the British colony. After about a day and a half spent in and around the colony the party started on their return drive to Edmonton coming by way of Vegreville.

Through the whole district travelled the crops were in splendid condition. Referring to the reports spread about Edmonton that the crops in the vicinity of Vegreville were suffering from lack of rain, Mr. Mathers said they were absolutely false. A drive around Vegreville convinced him that the crops in that locality compared very favorably with the best in the other districts visited. Although much drier than in previous years, the Vermilion country has received copious showers of rain, and the crop bids fair to be a splendid one.

While away Mr. Mathers took numerous photographs of the country passed through. A series of views were taken of the grading operations in Saskatchewan.

CROP CONDITIONS

MAGNIFICENT

Barley Harvest General. Wheat Cutting in Some Districts. Oat Cutting will be General in a Week

Reports from every part of the Edmonton district tell of splendid crop conditions. The grain is well advanced and the heads are large and plump. Where the grain was sown into the crop is naturally not making us good a showing. On the whole however the crop is now in such a condition that it will all be saved in good shape. The sample of grain is very fine and the yield will be a heavy one.

Around about Fort Saskatchewan the crops are in first class shape. Most of the farmers are at their barley cutting, and wheat will be ready in a few days. Even now in some localities parts of fields are being cut. Oats have been a little backward but are now ripening fast. In the Beaver Hills and Agricola districts barley cutting is in full swing. Wheat is almost ready and oats are coming on well.

The Stoney Plain district is perhaps one of the earliest this year. Many of the farmers are well advanced with their barley cutting, and some have commenced their wheat harvest. Much of the barley will be cut in a few days, and the wheat cutting will be general. The oat harvest will be ready in a few days. Henry Meyer, of Stoney Plain, has all his barley in stock, and has been cutting his wheat for the last four days. He has one hundred acres of wheat altogether, and before he will be able to get all his wheat cut his oats will be ready for the binder.

In the Clover Bar district the crops are well advanced. The barley harvest is gradually becoming general. Thus, daily commenced to cut his barley on the tenth, and is now half done cutting.

The St. Albert settlement is enjoying the best crops this year it has had for years. Barley cutting is general throughout the district. Wheat is looking splendid and will be ready to cut in from five to eight days, provided the weather holds good. Oats are filling out well and although a little backward, with a continuance of the present hot weather, will prove a splendid crop.

In the Ray and Riviere Qui Barre districts, crops are coming on well. Barley is being cut in a few places and will be general in a day or two wheat and oats are ripening rapidly.

Along the Calgary and Edmonton line the crops are well advanced. The grain is looking splendid, there being every indication of a bountiful harvest. Barley cutting is general, and parts of fields of wheat are being cut.
